KNOWING MYSELF, KNOWING OUR PLACE, FINDING MY FUTURE

'E mohio pū ko wai au, e mōhio pū ki tāku turanga, kia rapu tāku huarahi'

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Kia Ora Koutou Mangorei Whānau,

It is funny to look back at this time last year and see that NZ teachers were actually striking, our Tri Bi was an eventual washout and we had the turf just finishing up ready for the 2023 winter season - there are a few similarities to right now to be fair!

The main one is the turf has been restripped and will be relaid...again. Last years re-lay of the surface has not weathered well and there were some errors which has seen the school board back in communication with our turf provider who are, as you read, fixing it. We are hoping for it to be done in a timely fashion so as not to affect our busy upcoming winter sport season. There are a few final calls for registrations for winter sport that may use this surface in this newsletter - I cannot emphasise enough the great value in team sport for tamariki so please consider getting your child(ren) involved. In terms of Te Whare Tapa Whā; it is extra bracing for all walls!

Teachers are not striking (whew!) however they are having paid union meetings in school time next Thursday. This will not affect our ākonga (students) and the school will stay open. There are plans in place to ensure all teachers who are part of the union (all class teachers are) will be able to go.

The third part that mirrors last year, but with a better result was our School Triathlon/Biathlon. We were all a bit nervous when the rain was coming down on our biathletes but with a bit of faith in the rain radar we got through with it being a fabulous day. This was largely on the part of the great organisation of the Ahuwhenua Roopu of Kirsten van Greevenbroek, Kate Gwerder, Sarah Rowson and Penelope Moffat. I loved talking to a few parents who congratulated us on pushing through and that a bit of rain is part of the 'country heart' of the school - I do love that as it gives effect to Mangorei grit and determination. It was heart-warming to see a large group of parents here to support their tamariki and to then stay on for Whānau Kai Tahi and see the classes and how the start of the year has been. Huge thanks to David Nips and his team of volunteers for sorting food and drink on the day, and to our High School ex-pupils from NPBHS who came to assist on the course.

I hope the whānau-feeling continued on into the long weekend. In chatting to some of the kids around the place some stayed at the beach, some went for mountain walks - one boy set a tent up in his lounge and stayed in it - great memory making stuff!

Myself, I finished a great book - Cloud Cuckoo Land by Anthony Doerr and started reading Dan Carter's book on Leadership - a great thought provoking book. I also went to Dune 2 at the movies with one of my boys, watched the 'Canes beat the Blues on telly, walked the York Road track on the mountain and got the lawns and veg garden under control - tomatoes and zucchinis galore!

Have a super rest of the short week!

On Tuesday our Year 7/8 Boys cricket headed to Stratford to play Aurora in their preliminary game for next Friday's festival day. The team started strong bringing up a total of 211, with Jacob Gregory reaching 89 runs. They followed up a strong batting total by bowling and fielding well, getting Aurora all out for 81. This win means that the team have made it through to play in the Jamie Watkins Festival Day next Friday (22nd March), in Stratford. Thank you to Haydn Jones and Mike Erb, who took the team and umpired and scored the game.

SMASH CRICKET - AHUWHENUA ROOPU (YEAR 4-6)

On Tuesday and Wednesday mornings this week, our Ahuwhenua Roopu were lucky enough to take part some cricket sessions run by Taranaki Cricket Association. CUE THEATRE CURRENT PRODUCTION – “BURNING BRIDGES” 3-13 APRIL 2024

Book tickets here;

<https://www.trybooking.com/nz/QWR>

Rehearsals for Cue Theatre’s first production of the year ‘Burning Bridges’ by Amy Shindler are underway. The experienced cast of Jasmine Gallagher, Briar Tucker, Josh McKee and Regan Tate are breathing life into their characters whilst crafting a truly entertaining story. Kate, and Dan (born in the 90s), are professional colleagues and newlyweds. They invite Kate’s younger sister, Sarah, who is autistic for a two week visit. However Sarah has some major surprises for them and things quickly spin out of control.

Life quickly spirals into a nightmare of accusation and intrigue.

‘Burning Bridges’ explores issues surrounding autism such as sensory overload, obsession and difficulty forming relationships. It looks at other issues like gender politics at work and home and how do you prioritise childcare if you and your partner are equally professionally committed? Dark, intense with humour, it is one of those plays that will entertain you and make you think about things you didn’t know you needed to think about.

Director Sharren Read is excited about the progress this play is making and looks forward to using the new lights that have been recently installed. You won’t want to miss this one, tickets available online; cuetheatre.co.nz or Funho 067567030
